Create an attractive grain effect in 4 easy steps

• Comprehensive instruction leaflet included in pack

1. Apply 1-2 base coats & allow to dry

2. Liberally apply the graincoat

3. Comb through to create a lined effect

4. Use the graining tool to create the grain effect

HOW MUCH IS NEEDED?
1 Litre of Basecoat is normally sufficient to treat:

- 24 square metres per coat
- 4 standard internal doors on both sides with 2 coats of basecoat
- 40 standard kitchen unit doors on one side.

Coverage may vary with the type and colour of surface being treated

UNIQUE GRAINING TOOL

Ronseal's unique Graining Tool is highly flexible and ideal for most surfaces. Unlike other graining tools, it can be used on curved surfaces and hard to reach areas such as spindles and cupboard door moulding detail.

We recommend that for maximum protection you apply Ronseal Quick Drying Clear Varnish once the graincoat has dried.
